Some Final Considerations

To make the most of your participation to the Summit, we encourage you to plan in advance for the sessions that you want to join. The Summit agenda is subject to change, so please keep an eye on the latest information made available on the Summit platform.
We recommend to settle for a few sessions that you want to attend to make sure you leave enough room in your schedule to meet with the EDOs exhibiting at the Summit.

Before the Summit kicks off, the online event platform will go live and will allow you to customize your Summit agenda, see who else is attending, and request/accept 1-to-1 meetings with other attendees.

At AmCham Romania we will do our best to keep you informed of the latest news and updates from SelectUSA, but if you would also like to be kept in the loop with practical details, please make sure you let us know you are interested in joining the Summit.
