

EXPERIENCE IE NEW YORK COLLEGE. THE GATEWAY TO GLOBAL EDUCATION.

AN IENYC SPECIAL EVENT FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE IN EUROPE.

AGENDA

6:00 - 6:15 pm - Introduction to IENYC

6:20 - 7:30 pm - Masterclass

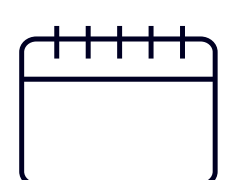

Masterclass:

Navigating Global Change: The Future of Sustainability Education and Careers in the U.S.
As the global economy pivots toward a low-carbon, high volatility, resource-scarce future, the professional landscape is shifting from stewardship marketing to strategic and competitive business resilience. This masterclass examines the forces reshaping sustainability careers in the United States, viewed through the lens of global trade policy, supply chain resilience, and the decarbonization of energy-intensive infrastructure.

This masterclass is led by Liz Pulos, Program Director of the MS in Global Business & Sustainability at IENYC, Adjunct Professor of International Trade & Corporate Responsibility at Fashion Institute of Technology, and former sustainability leader at Nike, Converse, and Macy's.
