

Danubius International Business School - GLOBAL BUSINESS ACCESS

International MBA – the shortest way to a global career

September 17th, 2013, 18:30, The HUB - Bucuresti

Danubius International Business School, part of Danubius University, launched admission process for International MBA, a rigorous academic program focused on providing executives, entrepreneurs, business managers and government officials with high level skills designed to position them to lead effectively in a global environment. Also, Global Business Access, the scholarship program will continue until September, 22th, 2013.

The Arcadia I.M.B.A. is a one-year part time program featuring a comprehensive curriculum comprised of 10 courses, each taught by international professors over weekend blocks to accommodate the schedules of working professionals. One distinct feature of International MBA Program is International Business Experience module which takes place in USA.

Register NOW, limited places!

From September 16th to 20th, 2013, the 18th cohort of students of MBA program held by Arcadia University, along with Professor Raymond Lamorgese will come in Romania to complete the MBA module: International Business Experience.

On this occasion, Danubius International Business School organizes on September 17 at 18:30 in the conference room of The HUB a meeting on "International MBA - the shortest way to a global career." (Location map HERE)

Besides Professor Raymond Lamorgese and the 20 students from MBA program, Catalin Ionescu and Mihai Stanescu, DIBS Advisory Board members, will speak about their experience and how quickly the MBA investment is amortized. Also they will share what kind of competences and skills can be acquired in this type of business education program and their impact at both personal and professional level.

The event is organized together with Danubius International Business School partners, respectively Piraeus Bank which offers a customized solution to finance this program and the International Advertising Association and Leaders Foundation.

This event is free and the enrollment is based on the website form of the event. Click HERE for availability. For further information please call 0741-010-616, Radu Turcescu.

International MBA Program
AN MBA FOR GLOBAL EXECUTIVES

Key speakers:

Raymond Lamorgese

MBA in Marketing –St. Joseph University, USA

BS in Business Administration in the field on finance –Villanova University

Over 15 years experience as executive manager in financial services and healthcare industry; teaching for over 17 years both at the undergraduate and graduate programs and graduate level programs.

Catalin Ionescu

Over 14 years experience as President and CEO of CODECS and group's subsidiary companies and over 20 years as a consultant, trainer, coach and facilitator. Promoter and pioneer of MBA programs in Romania, Initiator of the first Management Project brought in Romania from UK, the first Master in Human Resources alien from Romania, founder of the first training program, the first coaching company in Romania and Auto-placement field and the first Operations Management program. Founder and Senior Partner in Strategic Change, consultant and expert in many areas of leadership and organizational development: cost reduction and innovation management. DIBS Advisory Board Member.

Mihai Stanescu

Managing Partner of RoCoach Consult firm, a company dedicated exclusively to coaching services in Romania and South East Europe since October 2003. The main responsibility in this position is developing coaching programs for multinational and Romanian companies. Executive Coach, with an experience of over 350 clients, individuals and businesses in individual programs and organizational teams. Mainly RoCoach customers belong to one of the following categories: top managers of multinational companies, CEOs and executives of small and medium enterprises and (not least) entrepreneurs. Advisory Board Member of DIBS.

