CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Chicago, Illinois

Chicagoland offers a unique value proposition: the size and quality of life of a world class city with affordable costs. Chicago has an incredible workforce, and is a magnet for the brightest minds in the country. The region's diverse economy means that most of a firm's supply chain can be sourced in-region, and its strategic location makes it easy to move people and goods.

Costs to Attend

There is no participation fee for local companies that want to join AmCham's delegation.

Participants will have to cover the costs of return travel and accommodation.

Travel and accommodation arrangements will need to be made individually, but AmCham Romania will recommend flights and hotels for participants' consideration.

Delegation Program

Participants are encouraged to arrive in Chicago, IL on Monday, May 5th, 2025.

The delegation's program will include a two-day agenda of meetings and engagements with Government Agencies, Economic Development Organizations (EDOs) and business organizations, and site visits to local companies arranged by AmCham Romania, and two-day participation to the "Discover Chicagoland", a SelectUSA Spinoff Event, organized by World Business Chicago.

The final delegation agenda will respond to the business and commercial interests of attending companies - expressions of interest in the delegation are welcome as soon as possible.

The whole delegation experience was remarkably well organized, with a very good balance of meeting relevant people, making new friends and having fun.

All in all, an incredible experience!

I wholeheartedly recommend other companies to participate in such delegations in order to understand in a hands-on manner how business happens there, to meet with otherwise hard to meet officials and business persons and to have fun!
